University of Rasul Scholarship Policy 2026

1. Preamble

The University of Rasul (UOR) is committed to promoting inclusive and equitable quality education and promoting lifelong learning opportunities for all by supporting students from marginalized, disadvantaged, and underrepresented groups. This policy aims to establish a sustainable, institutionally funded scholarship system that ensures continuity and fairness independent of external fluctuations.

The University strongly believes that providing financial support is an institutional responsibility and a fundamental part of our mission of nation-building. Education transforms individuals and communities, and universities must "give back" by providing meaningful opportunities to students unable to finance higher education.

The Equity, Diversity & Inclusion (EDI) represents a commitment to fair treatment and equal access for students from diverse socioeconomic, cultural, gender, disability, or minority backgrounds. A diverse student body enriches academic life, encourages social awareness, and promotes values of inclusivity, respect, and unity.

This policy defines the objectives, categories, eligibility criteria, application processes, terms and conditions, and governance structures for all internally and externally funded scholarships.

2. Objectives

The objectives of this Scholarship Policy are to:

- i. Promote access to higher education for students from marginalized or underrepresented communities.
- ii. Support academically outstanding students through merit-based scholarships.
- iii. Encourage diversity by supporting minority groups, differently-abled students, transgender students, single parents, and students from remote or underserved regions.
- iv. Provide financial relief to students facing socioeconomic hardship.
- v. Create a transparent, accountable, and sustainable system for scholarship allocation and monitoring.
- vi. Strengthen University-community relations through educational equity and social responsibility.
- vii. Align institutional goals with national priorities by empowering students through financial support.

3. Scholarship categories

UOR classifies scholarships into the following major categories:

- A. Merit Scholarships
- B. Equity, Diversity & Inclusion (EDI) Scholarships
